Thanks - this was not reported to the NRC/RRC and we're following up.

Karen,

This is not a tipline call but information from a confidential source, just an FYI for you.

a Burning Bush fuel truck has landed in the creek in Dimock by Carter Road (Dimock to Nicholson Road). From what I understand it's down a 20 ft embankment and is leaking heavily - there working on it as we speak... Driver is apparently ok - So sad, this area does not need another hit
